Under Pressure: How Parents Can Support Youth Mental Health and Wellness

AZ Licensed Psychologist • Associate Vice President of ASU Counseling and Mental Health Services

With the escalation of anxiety, depression, and self-harm amongst our youth, parents are seeking resources and tangible and practical approaches to reaching and supporting their child in their connection and relationship with their student.

Join us for Madison School District's September Parent University with Dr. Aaron Krasnow, a veteran licensed psychologist and Associate Vice President of Counseling and Mental Health Services at Arizona State University. Dr. Krasnow will lead an engaging and dynamic keynote presentation with a question and answer session to follow.
